Hungry for Giggles?
Print out and tuck these deliciously silly riddles into your little learner’s lunchbox!

Riddle: Why did the green tomato turn red in the refrigerator?
Answer: It saw the salad dressing!

Riddle: Why did the farmer drive a steamroller over his field?
Answer: He wanted to grow mashed potatoes!

Riddle: What kind of berries did the kind lady give the scarecrow?
Answer: Strawberries!

Riddle: What did one potato chip say to the other?
Answer: Shall we go for a dip?

Riddle: What vegetable grows in the basement?
Answer: A cellar-y!

Riddle: Why was the vegetable band so popular?
Answer: It had a good beet!

Riddle: What kind of Jam can’t you eat?
Answer: A traffic jam!

Riddle: Why is a losing sports team like a scrambled egg?
Answer: Because both are beaten!

Riddle: Who is richer—a butcher or a baker?
Answer: A baker, because a baker has lots of dough!

Riddle: How do you make a hot dog stand?
Answer: Take away its chair!